

With My Own Two Hands (?)

What in the world needs to be changed? (These can be big or small things...)	Do you think you have the power to change the world? Why or why not?
Tools I possess to change the world...
...and how I might use them.
Ben Harper...With My Own Two Hands
What specific things does Ben Harper feel he can change with his hands?
Is he realistic or just a hopeful dreamer? Why?
What evidence is there that the artist truly believes he can change the world?

John Mayer...Waiting on the World to Change

What evidence does John Mayer provide that shows we must wait on change?

Is he realistic or just pessimistic? Why?

Your Turn...

Now that you have been exposed to several views of whether the world can be changed and how to go about doing it, it is time for you to take a stance. Are you more in agreement with Ben Harper or John Mayer?
Can the world be changed? Why? How?
